1641 A Common Prayer, long Lines, on a very large Letter, without the Epistles and Gospels and the occasional Offices, to make it light and more portable, in 1 vol. and the Epistles and Gospels, on the same Letter, together with Singing Psalms, on a large Letter, in another; uniformly and elegantly bound in blue Turkey, 5l. 5s.

N. B. The Letter of the above Book is the same Size, as that of the largest Folio used by the Clergy in the Churches; and was printed at the sole Expence of an ancient Lady of Quality, to render Spectacles unnecessary to her at publick Worship. A very small Number was printed, and this perhaps is the only one that has been to be purchas'd for many Years.
